

Polling places will be following all guidelines recommended by the CDC and Department of Health and will strongly recommend but is not required that all electors and volunteers wear masks inside the polling place.